FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DEXTER TUCKER JOINS ARGY, WILTSE & ROBINSON, P.C.

New Practice Director to Head Up Newly Formed Enterprise Software Solutions Group

McLean, VA — January 20, 2010 — Argy, Wiltse & Robinson, P.C. (Argy), a rapidly-growing certified public accounting and business advisory firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Dexter Tucker, as Director of the firm's newly formed Enterprise Software Solutions Group (ESSG). Based out of our Washington, DC metro area offices in McLean, VA and Bethesda, MD, Mr. Tucker will service the accounting software needs of Argy's clients that utilize enterprise application software tools such as Deltek's Costpoint, GCS Premier, Time and Expense and others.

"Entering the business of implementing government contract software with a professional of Dexter's caliber makes this opportunity even more exciting," said Paul Argy, President and CEO. "Having a strong leader like Dexter with such deep industry expertise is the right combination for success."

Mr. Tucker brings to Argy over 22 years of experience guiding clients with the efficient utilization of accounting and project management software applications, including implementation and configuration. He establishes best practices and procedures to maximize clients' systems that comply with federal procurement rules and regulations including Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) and Cost Accounting Standards (CAS). Mr. Tucker also spent time in the industry, having managed accounting and finance departments for both government contractors and nonprofit entities.

The addition of Dexter Tucker continues to build on Argy's business approach of offering the technical expertise of "Big 4" firms with the responsiveness and fee structure of a regional firm. Argy grew by nearly 30% in 2009, making it the 4th-fastest growing firm in the U.S. The addition of the new ESSG services is expected to further support Argy's growth in the coming years.
